PARTIES

2 1. Plaintiff, Anna Strasberg ("plaintiff"), is 3 Administrator, c.t.a., of the Estate of Marilyn Monroe and Executrix 4 of the Estate of Lee Strasberg (hereinafter referred to as "the 5 Estate").

6 Case 2:05-cv-02200-MMM-E Document 416-89 Filed 02/15/2008 Page 3 of 7 2. Plaintiff is informed and believes and on that basis
8 alleges that defendant Odyssey Group, Inc. is a corporation 9 organized and existing under the laws of the State of California.

10 3. Plaintiff is informed and believes and on that basis 11 alleges that defendant, William Miller, is a natural person and 12 competent adult, residing in the City of Corona, County of 13 Riverside, California. Plaintiff is further informed and believes 14 that defendant Miller is the Chairman of Odyssey Group, Inc.

15 4. Plaintiff is informed and believes and on that basis 16 alleges that defendant, Ruth A. Conroy, is a natural person and 17 competent adult, residing in the City of Downey, County of Los 18 Angeles, California.

19 5. Plaintiff is informed and believes and on that basis 20 alleges that defendant, Millington Conroy, is a natural person and 21 competent adult, residing in the City of Rowland Heights, County of 22 Los Angeles, California.

23 6. The true names or capacities, whether individual, 24 corporate, associate or otherwise, of defendants named herein as 25 Does 1 through 25 inclusive (including without limitation all 26 purported owners of subject property), are unknown to plaintiff who 27 therefore sues said defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiff 28 will seek leave to amend this Complaint to show their true names and capacities when the same have been ascertained. Plaintiff is 1 informed and believes and on that basis alleges that each of the 2 defendants is designated herein as a Doe has participated in some 3 manner with one or more of the other defendants named herein to 4 commit the acts herein alleged. Plaintiff is informed and believes 5 and on that basis alleges that the defendants named herein and all 6 the Doe defendants are the agents, servants, and employees of some 7 or all of the other defendants, and in doing the things herein 8 alleged, each acted within the course and scope of said agent and 9 employment with full knowledge and consent of some or all of the 10 remaining defendants.

11 FACTS COMMON TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

12 7. Marilyn Monroe died on August 5, 1962 in Los Angeles, 13 California. At the time of her death she was a resident of the 14 County of the Los Angeles. Marilyn Monroe left a last will and 15 testament which was duly admitted for ancillary proceedings in the 16 Los Angeles Superior Court in January, 1963. In that will, Ms.
17 Monroe gave and bequeathed all of her "personal effects and 18 clothing" as well as the residue of her Estate to Lee Strasberg.
19 Ms. Monroe did not bequeath any property to Inez Melson. Ms.
20 Monroe's Last Will and Testament is attached hereto as Exhibit A and 21 incorporated herein by reference as though set forth in full.

22 8. For several years before Marilyn Monroe's death, Ms.
23 Monroe employed Inez Melson as her assistant. Following Ms.
24 Monroe's death in August, 1962, Ms. Melson was appointed Special 25 Administratrix for the Estate of Marilyn Monroe by the Los Angeles 26 Superior Court and, in that capacity, was responsible for preparing 27 an inventory of Ms. Monroe's property, including Ms. Monroe's 28 personal effects and clothing. Ms. Melson was discharged from her

1 duties as Special Administratrix of the Estate of Marilyn Monroe in 2 September, 1963, at which time she purported to turn over the 3 balance of the assets remaining in the Estate to Aaron R. Frosch, 4 Executor of the Estate of Marilyn Monroe.

5 9. Plaintiff is informed and believes that rather than 6 turning over all of Ms. Monroe's assets to the Estate of Marilyn 7 Monroe, Ms. Melson fraudulently concealed the existence a number of 8 Marilyn Monroe's personal effects and clothing (hereinafter referred 9 to as "the Collection") and retained the items for her own personal 10 use.

11 10. Plaintiff is informed and believes that at some time 12 prior to or following the death of Inez Melson in 1985, defendant 13 Ruth A. Conroy, Ms. Melson's sister-in-law, came into the possession 14 of the Collection. Plaintiff is informed and believes that 15 defendant Ruth Conroy thereafter transferred possession of the 16 Collection to defendant Millington Conroy, who, in turn, transferred 17 possession of the Collection to William Miller and Odyssey Group, 18 Inc. for the purpose of auctioning the Collection to third parties.

19 11. Plaintiff is informed and believes that defendants 20 intended to sell the Collection at an auction which took place in 21 Hollywood, California on May 14, 1994. The auction, purportedly 22 sponsored by "Odyssey Auctions," was entitled "Rock-n-Roll & 23 Hollywood Memorabilia & Autographs" and originally included more 24 than sixty (60) items in its Marilyn Monroe segment, the majority of 25 which consisted of the Collection, obtained by defendants Miller and 26 Odyssey Group, Inc. from defendant Millington Conroy. The 27 Collection includes, inter alia, Ms. Monroe's personal phone and 28 address book, her tax returns, and her Screen Actors Guild card. In

1 the catalog for the auction, defendants Miller and Odyssey Group, 2 Inc. represent that the Collection "belonged to a close Monroe 3 associate." The relevant pages of the auction catalog are attached 4 hereto as Exhibit B and incorporated herein by reference as though 5 set forth in full. On May 10, 1994, defendant Miller represented to 6 plaintiff's counsel that the "close personal associate" was Inez 7 Melson and that the Collection was once the property of the Estate 8 of Inez Melson. Mr. Miller also stated that he received the 9 Collection from a third party, whom he refused to identify, except 10 to state that it was not the Estate of Inez Melson. Plaintiff is 11 now informed and believes that the "third party" alluded to by Mr.
12 Miller was and is defendant Ruth A. Conroy and/or Millington Conroy.

13 12. Plaintiff is informed and believes that the 14 Collection is not and was never rightfully the property of Inez 15 Melson, Ruth A. Conroy or Millington Conroy, but is and was the 16 property of the Estate.

17 13. The wrongful acts of defendants were discovered by 18 plaintiff in May, 1994. Due to the fraudulent concealment of the 19 Collection by Inez Melson, Ruth A. Conroy and Millington Conroy, 20 plaintiff was unaware of the existence of the Collection, and 21 defendants' conversion of the Collection, until plaintiff viewed the 22 Odyssey Auctions catalog. Furthermore, prior to May, 1994, 23 plaintiff had no notice of facts sufficient to arouse the suspicions 24 of a reasonable person that such wrongful acts had transpired. Upon 25 discovery of the existence of the concealed items, plaintiff 26 immediately notified defendant Miller that the Collection was the 27 property of the Estate, and that any sales to third parties would 28 result in irreparable harm to the Estate.

1 14. Plaintiff will amend this Complaint as evidence of 2 the wrongful acts of defendants, not herein alleged, is learned 3 through discovery.

4 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

5 (Conversion against all defendants)

6 Case 2:05-cv-02200-MMM-E Document 416-89 Filed 02/15/2008 Page 7 of 13
7 Plaintiff repeats, realleges, and incorporates by 8 reference, as if fully set forth herein, Paragraphs 1-14, inclusive
9 of this Complaint.

10 16. At all times herein mentioned the Estate was lawfully 11 entitled to possession of a certain identifiable number of items 12 once belonging to Marilyn Monroe, and which defendants converted to 13 their own use.

14 17. Due to defendants' wrongful acts of conversion 15 alleged above, the Estate suffered damages to be determined at 16 trial, but believed by plaintiff, based on defendant Miller's 17 valuation, to be in excess of $60,000.

18 18. Defendants, in performing the above alleged acts 19 constituting conversion, at all times herein mentioned, acted 20 knowingly, willfully and maliciously, with oppression, with an 21 intent to defraud the Estate, and in conscious disregard of the 22 rights of the Estate. Plaintiff, therefore, is entitled to an award 23 of punitive damages from defendants.

24 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

25 (Unjust Enrichment against all defendants)

26 19. Plaintiff repeats, realleges, and incorporates by 27 reference, as if fully set forth herein, Paragraphs 1-14, inclusive, 28 of this Complaint.

20. By virtue of the foregoing, defendants were unjustly enriched at the Estate's expense in an amount to be determined at trial, but believed by plaintiff, based on defendant Miller's valuation, to be in excess of $60,000.

21. As a direct and proximate result, the Estate was damaged by defendants' acts in an amount to be determined at trial, but believed by plaintiff, based on defendant Miller's valuation, to be in excess of $60,000.

22. Defendants, in performing the wrongful acts alleged above which constitute the basis for the cause of action for unjust enrichment, at all times herein mentioned, acted knowingly, willfully and maliciously, with oppression, with an intent to defraud the Estate, and in conscious disregard of the rights of the Estate. Plaintiff, therefore, is entitled to an award of punitive damages from defendants.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

(Imposition of Constructive Trust)

23. Plaintiff repeats, realleges, and incorporates by reference, as if fully set forth herein, Paragraphs 1-14, inclusive, of this Complaint.

24. As a result of the above alleged conversion and/or other wrongdoings by defendants, defendants have gained property which rightfully belongs to the Estate. Plaintiff seeks the imposition of a constructive trust on the property which defendants gained as a result of the above-mentioned wrongful conduct by defendants, the exact content of which is to be determined at trial.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Injunctive Relief)

25. Plaintiff repeats, realleges, and incorporates by reference, as if fully set forth herein, Paragraphs 1-14, inclusive, of this Complaint.

26. On or about May 10, 1994, plaintiff demanded that defendants Miller and Odyssey Group, Inc. stop its threatened auction. Defendant Miller Odyssey Group, Inc. refused and still refuses to permanently refrain from the threatened auction.

27. Defendants' threatened wrongful conduct, unless and until enjoined and restrained by order of this court, will cause great and irreparable injury to plaintiff in that the items defendants seek to auction are historically significant, irreplaceable, and have enormous sentimental value for plaintiff.

28. Plaintiff has no adequate remedy at law for the injuries that are threatened in that monetary damages cannot compensate plaintiff for the loss of such unique, historical and personally meaningful items.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff prays judgment in its favor and against defendants as follows:

A. That a Preliminary Injunction and Order To Show Cause therefore be issued as follows:

That defendants, and each of them, their members, officers, agents, employees, representatives, and each of them, and all unincorporated associations and natural persons acting in concert with defendants, or any of them, be and they hereby are enjoined and restrained from doing, threatening or attempting

1 to do, or causing to be done, either directly or indirectly, by 2 any methods or devices, any of the following acts: advertising, 3 displaying, offering for sale, selling, or transferring 4 possession or interest in any of the subject property pending 5 resolution of the rights to the property.

6 Case 2:05-cv-02206-MWF Document 10-80 Filed 02/15/08 Page 10 of 14

7 as set forth in paragraph A hereinabove be granted plaintiff pending 8 a hearing on such Order To Show Cause.

9 C. That upon trial of this action, judgment be had 10 against defendants and each of them, and that they be permanently 11 enjoined and restrained in the same terms as set forth in paragraph 12 A hereinabove and that the property be returned to the plaintiff.

13 D. On all causes of action, for damages according to 14 proof at trial;

15 E. On the first and second causes of action, for 16 punitive damages;

17 F. On the second cause of action, for an accounting of 18 defendants' profits and unjust enrichment;

1 G. On the third cause of action, for an order declaring 2 that defendants hold the property identified as "the Collection" in 3 trust for plaintiff and for an order compelling defendants to convey 4 to plaintiff the property.
